Adults Take Up Birthday Party Where 3-Year-Olds Leave Off

By EM FRENCH FR 5-1390

Mark Presley, 313 Via Linda Vista, was three years old last week and he had a party for all the kids in his neighborhood, and their mothers. It was planned as the usual "3 to 5", but everyone stayed on and the dads came home from work and joined in the ice cream and cake was supplemented with hamburgers and hot dogs.

One by one, the little ones dropped off to sleep and were deposited on extra cots and chairs, and still the party went on. Along about 1 a.m. the dads and moms shouldered their sleeping moppets and went home. Undoubtedly there'll be more children's birthday parties on Linda Vista.

Georgia Hennan, 220 Palos Verdes Blvd., was hostess to a bridge luncheon Tuesday. Her guests were MaryLou Linhart, Florence Washington, Peggy Graeff, Maxine Welch, Helen Wanke, Mary Jane Dorsett, Lee O'Malley and Connie Horne.

ELLINWOOD Buckleys Spend Week in Former Hometown Visiting Old Friends

By JANET ROBINSON FR 5-7063

Just returning this week from a vacation that was both varied and restful was Maude and Bob Buckley, of 4403 Green Meadows Ave. Their first week was spent near San Francisco where they stayed with old friends in Los Altos, Mr. and Mrs. Don Young and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larsen. They spent their days lazing around the swimming pool and visiting. A party was given for them during their stay to which many of their friends and acquaintances whom they knew when they lived in San Francisco were invited.

Their second week was spent at Mount Baldy Lodge. First they came home and picked up daughter, Susia and Maude's mother, Mrs. Marcella Owens, who had stayed with Susie while Maude and Bob were in San Francisco. All four of them enjoyed a wonderful week at the Lodge.

Several couples from our area enjoyed an authentic luau at the Chief Petty Officers Club on Terminal Island last Saturday evening. All of the entertainment was flown in from the Hawaiian Islands. The floor show was complete with hula girls and a four-piece Hawaiian orchestra played dance music all evening. All the women were presented baby orchid leis direct from Hawaii. A suckling pig was baked in a huge pit and, after appropriate ceremonies, was served to the guests along with many delicious Hawaiian delicacies. Those out for an evening of fun were Ronnie and Mary Reimer, Barbara and Jack Rose, and Bill and Jeanne Bowman.

Bill Bowman's last fishing trip to Lake Isabella was a little more profitable than the first one reported in this column. He came home with eight trout. His two fellow fishermen from the Douglas Plant were lucky too. They left on Friday evening and returned home Sunday night.

On Sept. 11th Joanne Haddad, of 4820 Highgrove Ave., celebrated her fourth birthday with a circus party. Many of her 25 guests came in circus costumes; so clowns, tramps and trapeze artists gathered on the patio decorated with gaily colored streamers and balloons and played circus games such as "Pin the Nose on the Clown." After the games all the little circus participants enjoyed eating a huge four-tiered cake decorated with animals in the circus motif. Those helping Joanne celebrate were her sister, Susan and Becky Walker, Dianne and Patty Clary, John and Ron Herdt, Steve Cleveland, Roxanne and Danny Baumgartner, Susan Blumenthal, Kevan Asman, Kathy, Barbara and Bobby Adams, Johnny Weber, Louis and David Tanner, Kendra and Scott Daly, Corky Meyer and Gary, Randy and Mel Sohler.

Pat and Ernie Russell, 213 Calle de Madrid, entertained Victor Chow Tung, originally from HongKong but now with the Brazilian Air Force, at their home, Sunday. Tung enjoyed Ernie's barbecued steaks more than he did the supposedly Chinese dinner to which he treated the Russells when he took them to Chinatown last week.

In September, Ernie and Pat took their five little ones to Balboa for a week. One day Pat was sitting on the pier while Buddy was fishing and along came Eyvind and Clasu Eklund in their boat. The Eklunds formerly lived next door to the Russells on Madrid, but the two families had not seen each other for several years. So Pat and Ernie and their broad went to see the Eklund's new home in Tustin. A lot of Rivierans will remember Ella, Ulla, and Birgetta, and the aforementioned Eyvind and Claus.

When Alliana Hornbeck showed her 10-month-old puppy at the annual Beverly-Riviera Dog Show recently, Kismet's Khilu (the puppy) won a blue ribbon and a trophy in the Female Puppy Class. This was Khilu's first show and she'll have to go some to catch up with her mother, Kismet, who has won 10 ribbons. The dog show which was held at the Miramar Hotel, in Santa Monica, was a benched show, which means that the exhibitors decorate the stalls in which the dogs are shown. Khilu is an African Barkless Basinje, and her box was "papered" in a large mural showing native dancers. The Basinje dates back to the days of the Pharaohs.

Mrs. Donald Hauser, 169

Mickey Hauser also tells me that she and Don have a new liquor store, 23739 Arlington Ave.

Mickey says he sure to take the kiddies along—they won't get free balloons, and they will meet Locks Martin, the Arden Giant, who will be at Don and Don's parking lot, Saturday, Oct. 6.

Locks Martin is the world's tallest deputy sheriff. He's seven feet, seven inches tall, wears a size 18 shoe, a size 12 2-gallon hat, and he weighs 282 pounds. He sleeps in an eight-foot bed, has difficulty getting in and out of automobiles, and can't get into a phone booth. Children love him, and vice versa.

Two weeks ago Roxie Read was given a surprise baby shower at Elaine Daly's home. Neighbors had gathered early and when Roxie came in for a cup of coffee at 10 in the morning, she really was surprised! Hot cinnamon rolls and coffee were served. Those present were Mildred Kiesel, Betty Tanner, Bonnie Meyer, Rosemary Walker, Alice Herdt, and Bea Clary.

Talking about surprises—when Frank Pope showed up on their anniversary with a French Poodle no one could have been more surprised than Jeanne. He, the poodle, has quickly made himself a member of the family. The children, Whit, Missy and Jonathan all love him.

John and Mary Wilhelm have had several houseguests the past week. John's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilhelm of Alhambra, have been enjoying our cool sea breezes while their home town has been sizzling. Mr. and Mrs. George Ashcraft of Seattle, spent the past week end at John and Mary's home too. Saturday evening they saw some of the bright lights. They traveled to restaurant row on La Cienega and partook of some delicious charcoal broiled prime rib steak dinners at Richlors. Is your mouth watering too?

All of you women who have children attending Newton school or who will have them going there some day can help out by saving silverware coupons appearing on cereal boxes, cake flour, etc. The PTA needs them to obtain silverware for the cafeteria. You may turn them in to Buff Meek, 5008 Newton St., or bring them to the PTA meetings.

We are sending out an SOS for more women to join the lampshade making class at the Newton School on Monday evenings from 7 to 10. If more women don't turn out the class will have to be disbanded. Everyone is welcome—come and bring some friends. Mrs. Boas, the instructor, will have you turning out beautiful lampshades in no time at all. The address is 23751 Nancy Lee Lane.
